

Zebrafish Toxicology SRF

Applications are invited for the Senior Research Fellow position to work on the following research project:

Project:

Developing and validating a single protocol based zebrafish model for preclinical safety assessment of nanotherapeutics.

Funding Agency: Department of Biotechnology (DBT)

Minimum Qualification: M.Pharm./M.Tech./M.V.Sc. in Pharmacology/Toxicology

Experience: Experience in zebrafish husbandry, management and toxicological evaluations. Good knowledge of toxicology/pharmacology. Good communication skills.

Fellowship: As per government norms

Duration: For the duration of project (maximum 3 years)

Application Process:

Interested candidates can send their curriculum vitae via e-mail to hr@drils.org.

Please mention "Zebrafish Toxicology SRF" as subject in your application email.

Application Deadline: 31 July 2013

Selected candidates will be called for a personal interview (No TA/DA will be paid to participate in the interview process or to join the project).