Counselling for allocation of General seats will start on June 13, 2013. Everyday around 250 applicants irrespective of category will be called in order of common merit, first. Those applicants belonging to category other than 'General' will have a choice to choose from a seat meant for General Category or from seats reserved for the respective category. When all seats for General Category get over, allocation of seats for PHP candidates from all categories will start from General PHP candidates for seats reserved for them. Thereafter, applicants in order of merit belonging to ST will be invited for seeking admission for seats reserved for ST. After this a similar process will continue for applicants belonging to SC & OBC respectively. At the end of counselling any seat remaining vacant may be offered to applicants in order of merit position. A revised calendar for allocation of seats is given below:

The applicants may take note that the above mentioned dates are tentative. The vacancy position will be updated on NIFT website i.e. www.nift.ac.in everyday. Accordingly, dates and applicant's merit rank may be updated every day. In case seat allocation for General category goes beyond June 18, 2013, the allocation of seats for candidates belonging to ST/SC/OBC may be shifted by that many days by which allocation of seats for General Category gets extended. All applicants are advised to keep monitoring the progress of allocation of seats and prepare their travel plans to the campus selected for counselling accordingly. For further clarification applicants may contact nodal officers of the campus where they are attending the counselling.
