

No. SB/EMEQ-135/2013 Dated 11/10/2013
No. DV/3/355/DST/2013-14 dated 27/11/2013

NOTIFICATION

Applications are invited for ONE JUNIOR RESEARCH FELLOW purely on temporary basis for a period of Four years to work for a research project entitled "Investigation on Molecular Ecology and Diversity of Viroids (small RNA's) and Viroid Diseases in India" funded by the Department of Science and Technology, Govt. of India, New Delhi.

Nature of work: The candidate has to conduct extensive field studies to collect viroid diseased samples from different parts of India and to conduct laboratory work related to small RNA's.

Educational Qualification: Candidate should have First Class M.Sc. degree in Botany/Microbiology/Molecular Biology with knowledge/skills of plant pathology/Molecular Biology are essential.

Emoluments: Rs. 16,000/- per month and admissible HRA for NET qualified candidates. If Net qualified candidates are not available emoluments will be @ Rs. 14,000/- per month and admissible HRA.

How to Apply: Application on plain paper giving complete bio-data of educational qualifications and working experience, contact numbers, e-mail address with attested copies of certificates should reach the undersigned within 15 days from the date of appearance of this advertisement.

Approved

hamp
30/12
Registrar

✓ University of Mysore
Mysore-570 006

Prof. G. R. JANARDHANA

Principal Investigator
Department of Studies in Botany
University of Mysore
Manasagangotri
Mysore-570 006
Email: grjbelur@gmail.com