With regard to admission of students it is informed that, the academic year 2016-17 has already been commenced basing on the entrance test conducted in the month of April, 2016. A total number of 6044 candidates have applied for admission into Intermediate 1st year for the available seats of 480 in 3 Junior Colleges. As two months have elapsed in the current academic year, it is not desirable to call for fresh applications to conduct entrance test for the newly sanctioned 16 Junior colleges, as the students might have accommodated in other colleges.

In view of the above, the Convener Principals are requested to follow the following guidelines.

- 1) Issue Press note for calling for applications before 7th August.
- 2) Merit in the SSC exam may be taken into consideration.
- 3) The students appeared for X Class Examination during 2016 and passed in single attempt are only eligible. Advance Supplementary/Supplementary Candidates are not eligible for Admission.
- 4) The students who have passed earlier are also not eligible for admission.
- 5) Rule of reservation to be observed as per seat matrix.
- 6) Admissions shall be completed by 16th August 2016 and commence classes immediately.
- 7) The left over applicants in the entrance examination already conducted may also be given opportunity basing on their merit in SSC exam instead of entrance exam by sending SMS message to their contact numbers.
- 8) Date of admissions from 11-08-2016
- 9) Interested and eligible candidates may apply through online by visiting website mjptbcwreis.cgq.gov.in by paying Rs.150/- through PAYMENT GATEWAY.

In view of the above, the Convener Principals in the State are requested to take necessary steps immediately.
