The meeting was started with detailed discussion on CCIM PG regulation, and all members unanimously agreed with following points.

1. There must be strictly followed CCIM norms for main supervisor and student ratio i.e. 03 students under Professor, 02 under Associate Professor and 01 under Assistant Professor. However, there is no such ratio or experience required for co-supervisor.
2. There must be statistical design given in the thesis for significance of the results. Help of statistician can be taken for this purpose.
3. Cost estimation should be mentioned in the synopsis and complete expenditure in the thesis.
4. There must be enclosed certificate from Institutional Ethical Committee in case of clinical studies and from Institutional Animal Ethical committee in case of pre-clinical experiments with thesis. Please note that together with revised synopsis, this certificate is not mandatory to produce.
5. All the concerned supervisors must be careful about the title of the thesis which should be befitting with the specialty or department. It should not be vague rather to pin point the study.
6. During presentation, it has been found that many of the synopses were poorly prepared; the reflection of specialty in the title itself was completely missing.
7. Non-clinical departments studying clinical trials must have one co-guide from clinical department to supervise and certify the clinical study in the thesis. The main supervisor will be responsible for such cases.
8. The name of the Departments to be written in the thesis or synopsis must be as per CCIM.
9. Synopsis must contain complete thesis design and protocol to be followed.
10. In case of candidate's name, there must be no prefix (i.e. Dr.) used in synopsis and thesis. Supervisors are advised to carefully check the name before sign the same.
