Measures taken for Practical Examinations:

- Videography is provided for Practical Examination centres randomly.
- A District Examination Committee with RIO as Convener is constituted for smooth conduct of examinations.
- A High Power Committee with Collector as Chairman, S.P. as Vice-Chairman, RJDIE & DVEO as Ex-Officio members, and one senior Principal as member is constituted.
- The High Power committee can order re-conduct of examination wherever malpractice is established.
- Number of Examiners: Govt./Aided : 4,234
Private/Un-aided : 7,818
Total : 12,052
- Examiners are jumbled and they are not allowed to conduct Practical Examination in their own college or of the same management college.
- Flying Squads are deployed on par with theory examination as per the scale i.e., for 20 centres – 1 flying squad, for 40 centres – 2, for 60 centres – 3 and for more than 60 centres – 4 flying squads.
- Departmental Officers are appointed to all Private Unaided college Practical Examination centres and they are changed every 5 days. Examiners are changed every 3 days at a centre.
- If 25% of the candidates of any college secure 100% marks in Practical Examinations, the BIE will take measures for re-verification of the Practical Answer Scripts of those candidates. Appropriate action will be taken, if necessary.
- Valued Answer scripts of those candidates who secure 27 to 30 marks in Practical Examinations, may also be re-verified by the BIE.
