Counselling for allocation of General seats will start on July 8, 2013. Everyday applicants as per schedule irrespective of category will be called in order of merit. Those applicants belonging to category other than 'General' will have a choice to choose from a seat meant for General Category or from seats reserved for the respective category. When all seats for General Category get over, applicants in order of merit belonging to ST will be invited for seeking admission for seats reserved for ST. Thereafter, a similar process will continue for applicants belonging to SC & OBC respectively. At the end of counselling any seat remaining vacant may be offered to applicants on order of merit position. A tentative calendar for allocation of seats is given below:
